St Patrick's Day in Tourmakeady - Behind such a great day were some great people so thank you to all the helpers, all those who again helped us with a supply of refreshments, Kevin O'Toole for his sponsorship, those minding the parade, those on the Community Employment Schemes and all those in the hall on the day and otherwise helping and getting it ready for this wonderful community event. Thank you and happy St Patrick's Day!

Thank you. It is very hard to know what to say when you wish to say thank you to someone! Today was another example of the great community spirit here in the area. The massive support that we had for St Patrick's Day makes it all worthwhile and is so rewarding. We are very grateful and want to thank you all for your support and commitment and for making it such a brilliant day. The weather of course was on form and added greatly to the ambience.
