Jesus came to his home town of Nazareth and his fellow towns people would not accept him. And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is only despised in his own country, among his own relations and in his own house". And he could work no miracles there.

GESTURES at MASS and BODILY POSTURES:

The gestures and bodily posture of the priest and the people (according to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal) must help to make the entire celebration shine with beauty and noble simplicity and make clear the true and full meaning of its different parts and foster the participation of all. A common body posture, to be observed by all those taking part, is a sign of the unity of the members of the Christian community gathered together for Mass.
