The Rosary Priest – A Biography of Fr Patrick Peyton CSC is written by a priest of our own diocese, Fr. Tom Mulligan, who served for many years as Parish Priest of Attymass, Fr. Peyton's home parish. The book was launched there on Wednesday night last.

Fr Peyton became famous in the mid-twentieth century for championing the power of prayer with his mantra 'the family that prays together stays together' and for travelling the world with Family Rosary Crusades that attracted thousands of devotees. The Rosary Priest brings to life this devout and charismatic figure who became a household name in America where he produced hit radio shows and films that captivated tens of millions and starred such Hollywood luminaries as Bing Crosby, James Dean, Grace Kelly and Loretta Young. This wonderful biography explores Fr Peyton's mission to share the gift of the Rosary with the world, a decision largely inspired by his astonishing recovery from tuberculosis as a young man, which he attributed to the intercession of the Virgin Mary. This book celebrates a remarkable figure in Irish Catholicism who, from humble beginnings in a poor west of Ireland family, criss-crossed the globe converting millions to his simple message of family prayer. The book is available in all good bookshops.
