Data Protection Acts 1988, 2003 and 2018

Who are we?

Mayo County Council (the Council) is the democratically elected unit of Local Government in County Mayo and is responsible for providing a range of services to meet the economic, social and cultural needs of our customers. To meet the needs of the citizens, communities and businesses of our County the Council will be required to collect, process and use information about people and organisations. In this context the Council is a public authority in accordance with Data Protection Acts 1988, 2003 and 2018 (as amended).

Why do we have a Privacy Statement?

This privacy statement demonstrates the Council's commitment that the personal data you may be required to supply to us is;

- Obtained lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner
- Obtained for only specified, explicit and legitimate purposes
- Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary for purpose for which it was obtained
- Recorded, stored accurately and securely and where necessary kept up to date
- Kept only for as long as is necessary for the purposes for which it was obtained.
- Kept in a form which permits identification of the data subject
- Processed in a manner that ensures the appropriate security of the personal data including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing.

Why do we ask for personal data?

Depending on the service sought 'personal data' as defined by the Data Protection Acts and the General Data Protection Regulation (the GDPR) may be collected and processed by the Council. This may relate to current, past and future service users; past; current and prospective employees; suppliers; and members of the public who may engage in communications with our staff. In addition, staff may be required to collect, process and use certain types of personal data to comply with regulatory or legislative requirements.

Our Reception at the Front Counter is the first point of contact at Aras an Chontae, Castlebar. To make it easy for you to access services and the Council to communicate with you, you may be asked for contact details and details of your enquiry. You do not have to provide all contact details but providing more, such as email, phone, address, makes it easier to communicate. If you have an existing enquiry or other business with the Council you may be asked for a relevant file or reference number. This is requested to assign your enquiry to the correct service area. Where you need to access personal data, you may be asked to verify your identity to reduce risk of unauthorised access.

What types of personal data do we need?

The types of personal data you typically may be asked to supply can be categorised as follows,

- Contact details to allow for efficient communication
- Details of personal circumstances you are required by law to supply as part of your application for a service.
- Your own financial details which you are required by law to supply as part of your application for a service.

Typically information required is described in separate application forms relevant to each service, containing a privacy notice specific to the service. Privacy notices outline the legitimate purpose for which data is sought, the legal basis under which it is required to be supplied, other organisations/bodies that the Council will be required to share data with, or obtain data from, details of how your personal data will be kept safe and the period for which your data will be retained. Application forms to access specific services are available on our website www.mayo.ie or at our public counters.

Is personal data shared with other organisations?

The Council may, to fulfil statutory or regulatory obligations or in the public interest, from time to time, have to share personal data with other organisations or entities. Where this is required the Council shall have regard to the security and integrity of the data and will minimise the data shared. More information on this is contained in our specific application forms.

How long is my data kept for?

The Council has a detailed records retention policy which outlines all processing activities across the organisation, provides time periods for which your personal data will be retained and details what will happen to your data after the required retention period has expired.

Cookies

What is a Cookie?

Cookies (web cookies, internet cookies, browser cookies) are small pieces of data (text file) created by a web browser while the user is browsing a website. The visiting website asks the browser to store information such as language preferences etc.

Cookies that are set by us are called first party cookies. Third party cookies are cookies which are from a domain other than the one you are visiting.

Our Use of Cookies:

The Mayo County Council Website uses Google Analytics to report on how users use the website.

Google Analytics uses ‘cookies’ to tracks every time a user visits a webpage; the tracking code will collect anonymous information about how that user interacted with the page. The information generated by the cookie (Including IP address) is transmitted to Google. Mayo County Council then uses this information to report on website use and activity. Mayo County Council will not (and will not allow any third party to) use the statistical analytics tool (Google Analytics) to track or to collect any personally identifiable information of visitors to Mayo.ie. We will not associate any data gathered from this site with any personally identifying information from any source as part of our use of the Google statistical analytics tool. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google. Neither Mayo County Council nor Google will link, or seek to link, an IP address with the identity of a computer user.

Mayo County Council uses cookies to allow accessibility options on the site to function correctly i.e. increasing/decreasing text size or changing the contrast.
