Happy Easter!

Happy Easter! May you and all you love receive the blessings of the Risen Lord into your hearts and into your homes. A warm welcome home to all who have joined us, and we send Easter greetings to parishioners around the world who will be linking in with us over these next few days. A special welcome to our new Ukrainian parishioners.

At Easter we celebrate the central truth of our faith; Jesus is alive. By rising from the dead, Jesus has not just destroyed death for all of us but in rising from the dead Jesus now lives within each one of us.

Our task now is to untomb Jesus from the darkness of our lives, our challenge is to allow Jesus to flower in our world.

Watered Gardens

God of little buds just now wearing green sleeves,
God of lilac limbs all full with signs of flowering,
God of fields plowed and black with turned-over earth,

God of screeching baby bird mouths widely awaiting food,

God of openness, of life and of resurrection,
Come into this Easter season and bless me.

Look around the tight, dead spaces of my heart
That still refuse to give you entrance.

Bring your gentle but firm love.

Begin to lift the layers of resistance

That hang on tightly deep inside of me.

Open, one by one, those places in my life
Where I refuse to be overcome by surprise.

Open, one by one, those parts of my heart
Where I fight the entrance of real growth.

Open, one by one, those aspects of my spirit
Where my security struggles with the truth.

Keep me open to the different and the strange;

Help me accept the unusual and also the ordinary;

Never allow me to tread on others dreams

By shutting them out, closing them up,

By turning them off or pushing them away.

God of the Resurrection, God of the Living,

Untomb and uncover all that needs to live in me.

Take me to people, events and situations
And stretch me into much greater openness.

Open me. Open me. Open me.

For it is only then that I will grow and change.

For it is only then that I will be transformed.

It is only then that I will know how it is

To be in the moment of rising from the dead.

God Bless, Fr Tod

Dawn Mass

Dawn Mass will be celebrated at Burrishoole Abbey at 5.45am on Easter Sunday morning. There is a high tide later in the morning and parishioners are asked not to park too close to the slipway!

If you have a lantern which we could use in lighting the entrance to the Abbey you might bring it with you to Mass.

Weekday Mass

The Annual Mass for deceased members of the Old IRA will be celebrated in Newport Church on Monday 18th at 12noon. There will no daily Mass for the rest of the week.

First Communion

First Communion takes place in Newport Church at 12noon on Saturday May 14th. Our next First Communion Preparation Mass takes place this coming Sunday (April 24th) at 10am

Priest's Easter Collection

The Priest's Easter Collection (Blue Envelope) will be taken up over the coming weeks. Thank you for your continued support. Mulranny NS Enrolment

Enrolment is now open at Mulranny National School for the 2022/2023 school year. Enrolment forms can be found on the school website or can be requested by contacting the school directly. New entrants are encouraged to enrol as soon as possible

An Easter Prayer

Lord the Resurrection of your Son has given us new life and renewed hope.

Help us to live as new people as we follow the Risen Jesus.

Grant us wisdom to know what we must do,
the courage to undertake it,
the perseverance to continue to do it and the strength to complete it.

Amen
