Recent Deaths: Please pray for the happy repose of the soul of Jean Cahill (née Brehony), Ballaghaderreen, who died on Wednesday last, October 19th and whose funeral took place in Ballaghaderreen on this Saturday. She was the mother of David Cahill, Carroward. May she rest in peace.

Your prayers are also requested for the happy repose of the soul of Michael McNeela, Lismirrane and formerly of Knockthomas, Castlebar. His remains will repose at Kilcoyne's Funeral Home, Thomas Street, Castlebar on Sunday evening from 5.30pm with removal at 7.30pm to The Church of the Holy Rosary, Castlebar arriving at 8.15pm. Funeral Mass on Monday morning at 11.30am followed by burial in Castlebar new Cemetery. May he rest in peace.

World Mission Sunday (23rd October): This year's theme is 'You Will Be My Witnesses' (Acts 1: 8). Every Christian is called to be a missionary and witness to Christ. The Church, the community of Christ's disciples, has no other mission than that of bringing the Gospel to the entire world by bearing witness to Christ. Each baptised person is called to mission, in the Church and by the mandate of the Church.

All offerings made on World Mission Sunday become part of the Holy Father's Universal Solidarity Fund which supports missionary activities in over 1,100 young dioceses, mostly in Africa, Asia, and Latin America.

For more information, go to www.missio.ie/what-is-world-mission-sunday/. An envelope for donations is included in the offertory envelopes box or you can donate to Missio Ireland through its website: www.missio.ie/donate/.

'Achonry Camino': As a follow-up to the Achonry Youth Day last July, the Youth Ministry Committee has organised an 'Achonry Camino' to take place on Sunday, October 30th. The aim is that young people (18-35) might consider spending a bit of time together, to share the road of faith in their own locality. The timing is very much geared towards students and workers who might be home for the weekend and returning to college or work on Sunday evening. If you enjoy walking and being with others, this might be an ideal opportunity to enjoy both and spend some time in prayerful reflection and discovery.

There is Mass in Mullinabreena at 10am for those who wish to attend. The gathering point for the Camino will be the Community Hub, Lavagh (beside the Church in Mullinabreena) at 11.00 a.m. The route will be from the Hub towards Court Abbey, then to climb Knocknashee and return to the Hub, where there will be a debriefing session followed by refreshments. There will be a short passage of Scripture for reflection along the route, a guided tour of the Abbey and an opportunity for a shared reflection on the experience on return to the Hub. We are expecting that the whole event will be approximately two hours. All young people aged 18 to 35 are invited and encouraged to participate.

Bohola Post 2022 (50th Edition): The closing date for submission of articles and photographs is Sunday, October 30th. Email boholapost@gmail.com.

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week, October 23rd: The Song of Songs The great mystic, St Teresa of Avila, said that in the Old Testament book, the 'Song of Songs', the Lord is teaching the soul how to pray. "Along how many paths, in how many ways, by how many methods you show us love! ...in this Song of Songs, you teach the soul what to say to you... We can make the Bride's prayer our own."

If Teresa is right and the loving, desiring, passionate language of the Song is the language in which God longs to hear the soul speak, many of us may have to make a radical shift in our perception of what it is to love and be loved by God. Why, from the hundreds of Old Testament passages used in readings for Sundays and Holy Days in the Catholic Lectionary, is not a single passage from the Song included? And only two passages used in the Revised Common Lectionary? Listen to – and pray with – this tremendous hymn of praise, stunningly read by David Suchet (the actor who played Poirot), at www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

Mary's Meals Mayo is hosting an information morning at 11am on Saturday, October 29th in the Alexian Brother's Community, St Alexius, Knock, F12 PK73. The guest speaker is Fr. Eamonn Kelly. All are welcome. Enquiries to 087-2483343.

It costs just €18.30 to feed a child with Mary's Meals for a whole school year. We are committed to keeping our operating costs low and spend a minimum of 93% of all donations on our charitable activities. We don't pay for advertising in Ireland and are humbled and heartened by the support we receive from people all over the country. If you would like to get in touch, please email ireland@marysmeals.org.

Anam Cara Mayo, the organisation that supports bereaved parents, is holding a Parent Evening on Tuesday 25th October at 7:15pm in the T.F. Royal Hotel, Castlebar.
