Tomás Ó Máille Exhibition: A special bilingual exhibition on the life and work of Professor Tomás Ó Máille is now open to the public from today 2nd until the 29th MAY in CDS Teo Corr na Móna. This is the first opportunity to see the exhibition in a Gaeltacht area. Tomás was born in the Maam Valley and his brother Peadar was a school teacher in Corr na Móna. There are still relatives of Ó Máille in Maam and Tuar Mhic Éadaigh . He was the inaugural Professor of Irish at University College Galway. A folklore and song collector, newspaper editor, linguist and teacher, O Máille was a pioneer in many ways. He creathed hundreds of recording of Irish speakers from Connacht and Clare. In celebrating his outstanding legacy, this exhibition shares his message of cultural equity and active citizenship, principles that are hugely significant for minoritized languages all over the world. Don't miss the opportunity-well worth a visit.
