Are you aged 50 and over? Do you enjoy driving, cycling and walking but sometimes feel anxious on the road with all the changes there has been over the years? To help you through some of the more stressful aspects of being a Road User today, an Older Road Users Information Day is being held in Breaffy House Hotel, Castlebar, on Thursday, 14

March 2019, from 9.30am to 1.00pm. The event is free and is an Age

Friendly initiative, organized by Mayo's Older Persons Council, Mayo County Council's Road Safety Section and the Community Section. The event will cover a range of topics including changes in road traffic law, road layouts and traffic signs, how vehicles have changed over the years and how driving skills and habits have evolved. Another element of the day will include a physiotherapist, optician and also those involved in the importance of physical activity. The overall aim of the information day is to help improve the experience for Older Road Users and increase their awareness and knowledge on the current road systems/environment. Special guests on the day will include former RTE Newsreader; Michael Murphy and current Mayo Footballer; Andy Moran.
